is a deeply personal film for me, and I can't wait for the audience in Mumbai to experience it."

The shorts include 'Emma' by Rima Das, 'Jules' helmed by Imtiaz Ali, 'Nandini' by Onir and 'Setara' by Kabir Khan. The films are reflective of varied themes of diversity including gender, race, sexuality and disability.

Rima Das said, "What makes 'My Melbourne' special is the sincerity of the stories. Each segment is a heartfelt exploration of human connections, set against the cultural diversity of Melbourne. I look forward to showcasing my film 'Emma' at MAMI, where such narratives are deeply appreciated".

My Melbourne has been produced by Mitu Bhowmick Lange , in partnership with VicScreen and Screen Australia

Onir said, "Nadini' is about breaking boundaries, emotional and physical, and telling human stories that resonate across geographies. It has been a beautiful collaboration with emerging filmmakers from Melbourne, and I am eager to see how Indian audiences connect with it at MAMI".

'My Melbourne' is set to premiere in the Gala Section of MAMI 2024 on October 22.
