Arjun Kapoor looks like the most wanted munda for every girl as his look has left us impressed.

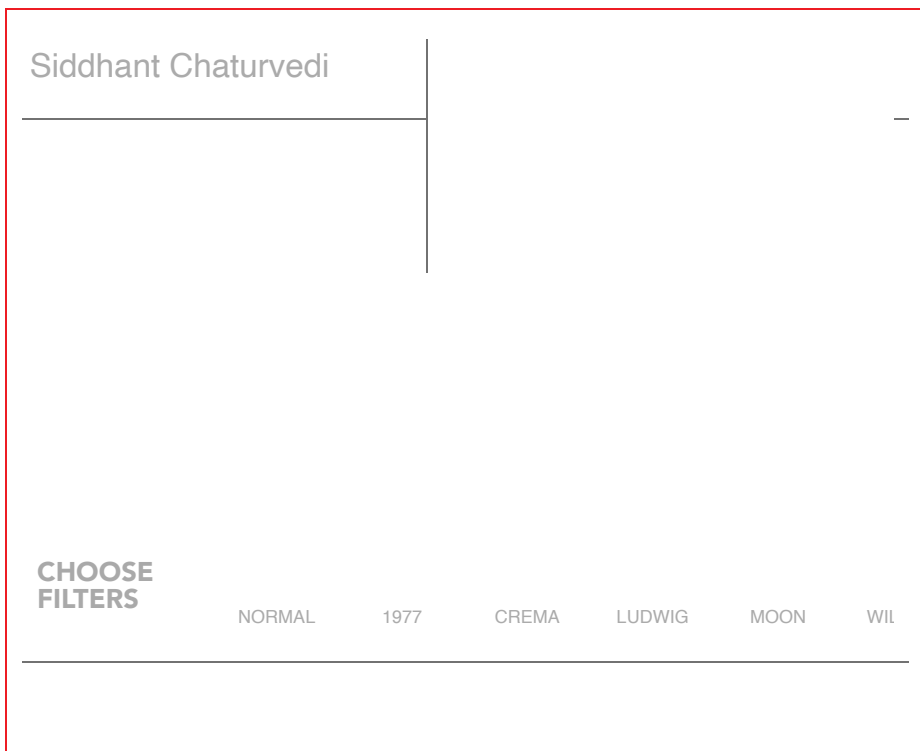

Uff, someone save us from his hotness! Wearing a classy navy blue bandhgala jacket that he paired with white trousers, Aditya made our hearts skip a beat.

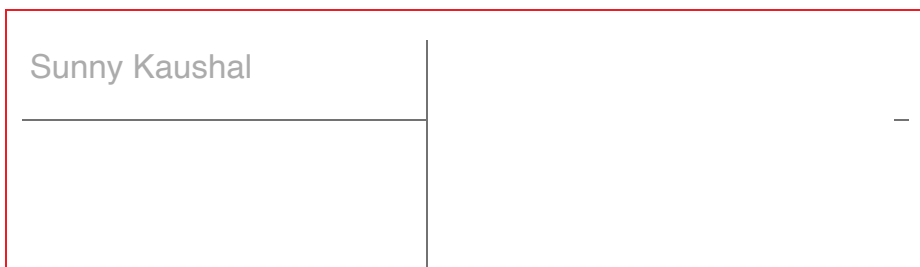

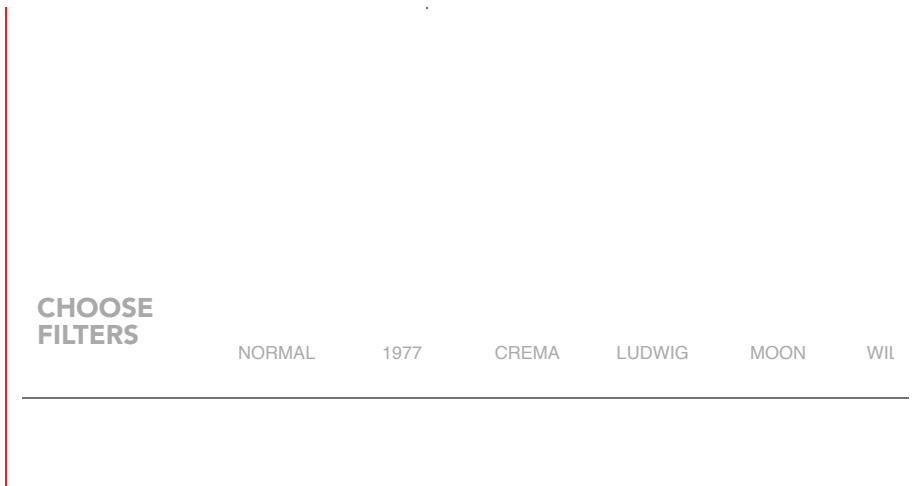

Vedang Raina looked cute in a simple all-black look. Adding no depth to his fashion, his look comes across as a basic one.

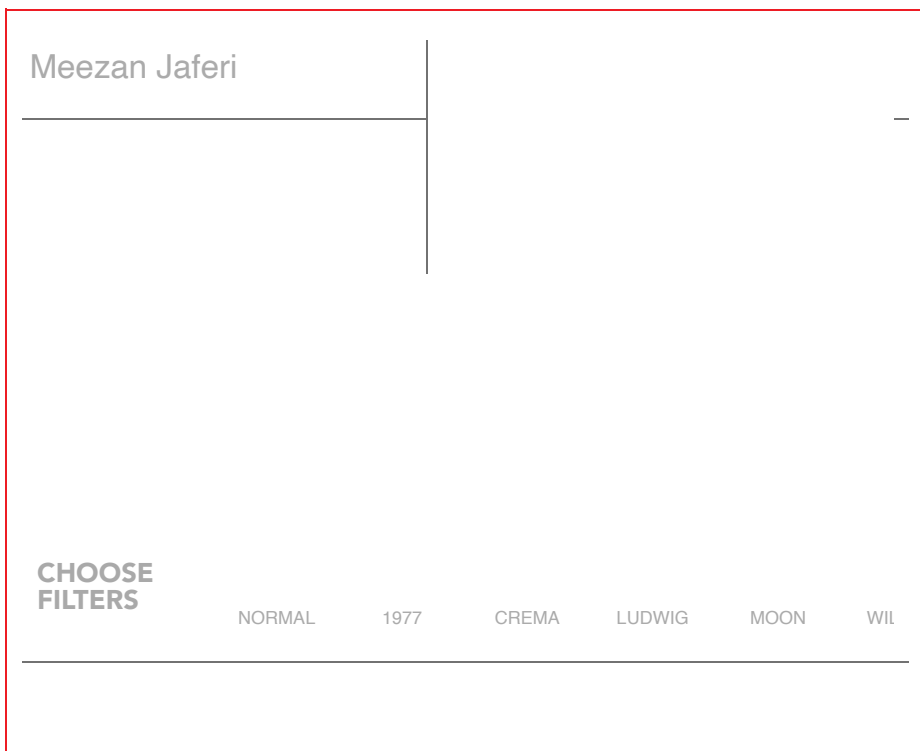

Siddhant Chaturvedi also arrived in an all-black look. However, to add a little difference to his look, he picked a printed black jacket, to make his look stand out.

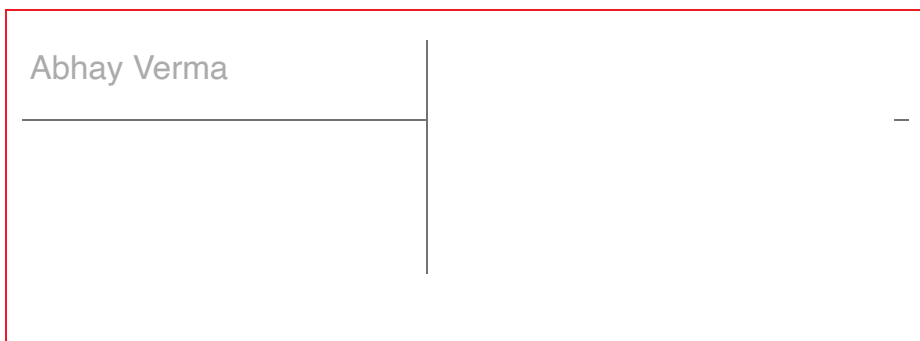

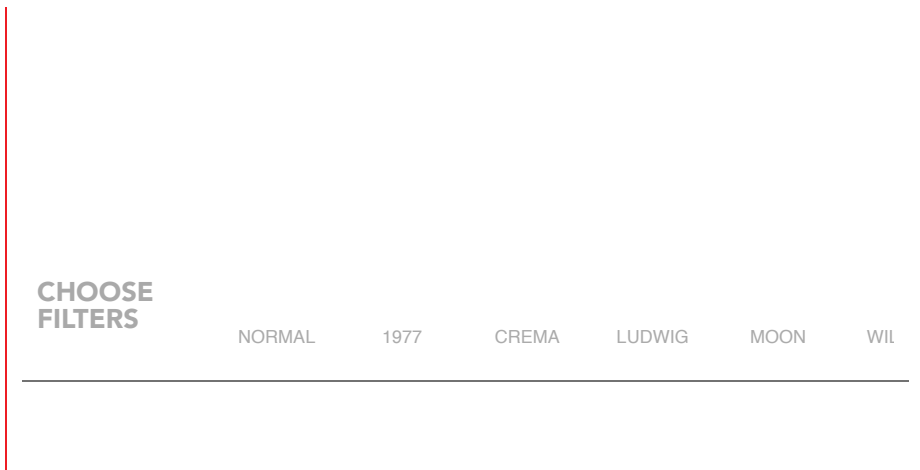

Sunny Kaushal looked like a flower bouquet as he donned a floral kurta with patiala salwar.

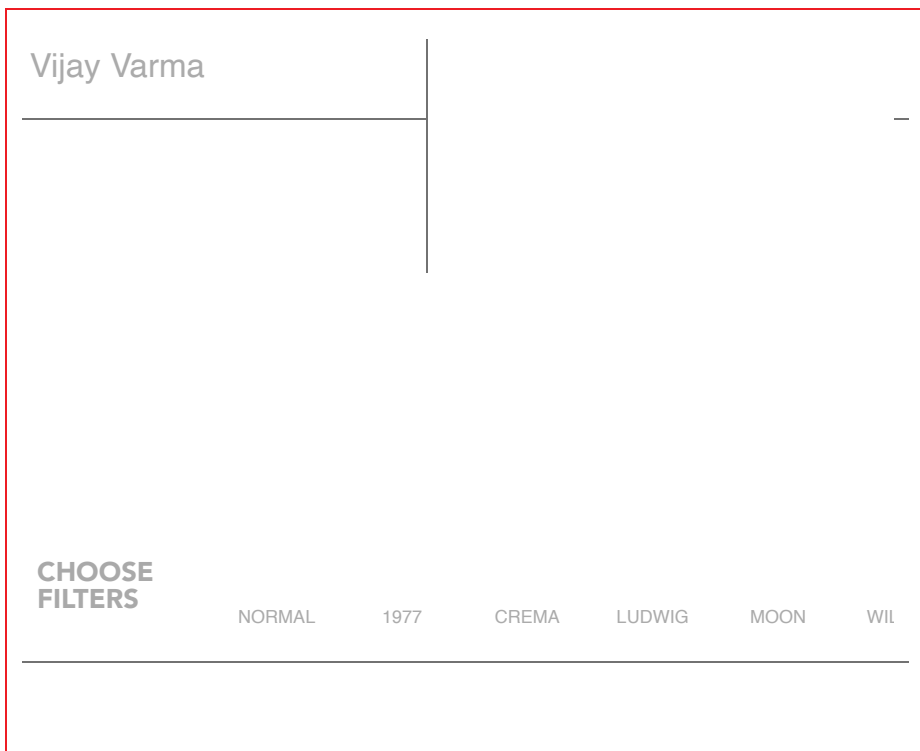

Meezan looked suave in a red sherwani that he teamed up with black trousers.

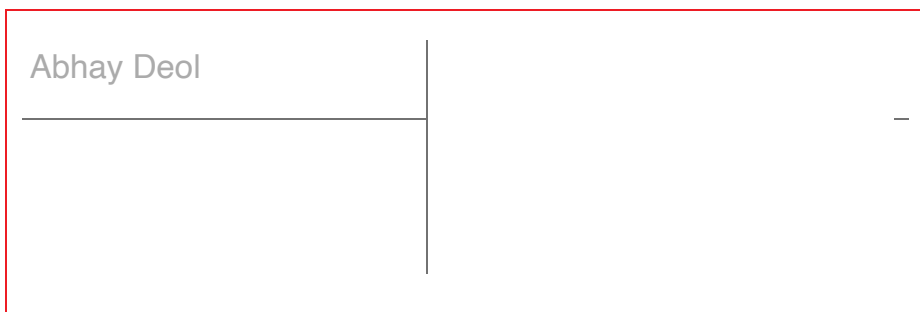

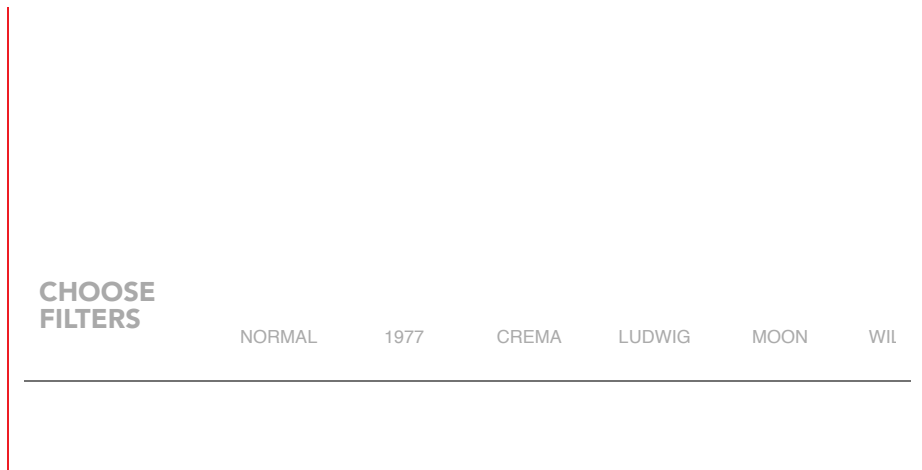

Another actor with an all-black look. The Munjya star Abhay Verma left us smiling for his boyish charm only.

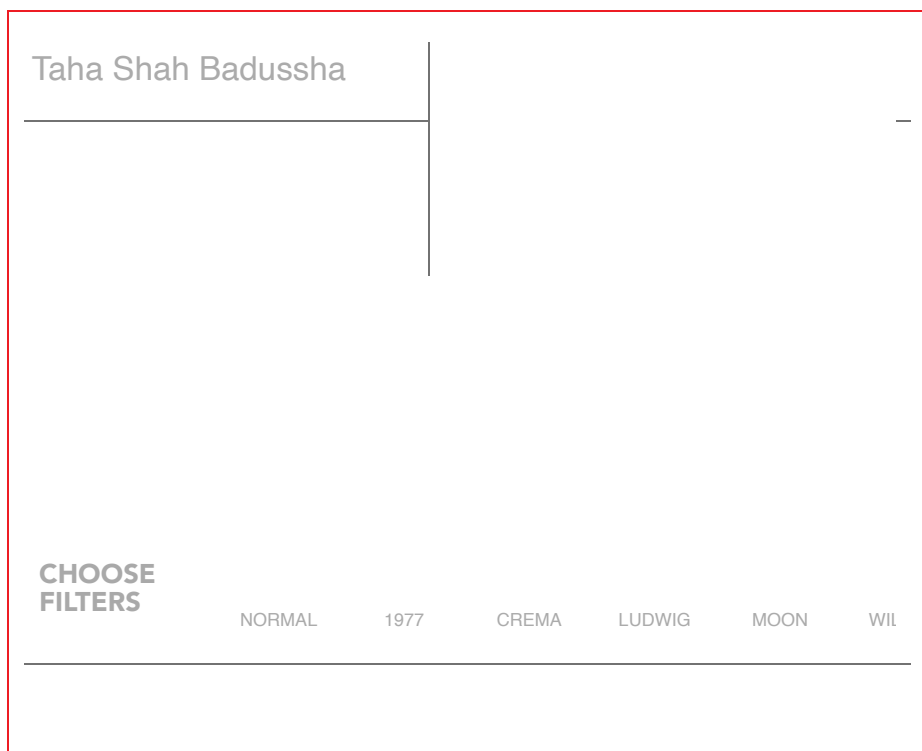

Vijay Varma sported a simple black bandhgala kurta pairing it with white trousers.

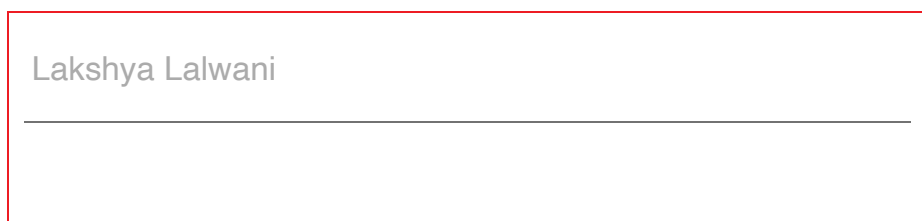

Abhay Deol picked a nice baby pink sherwani that he teamed with a white salwar. He rounded his look with brown-tinted glasses, adding a little swag to his look.

Heeramandi star Taha Shah Badussha looked adorable yet handsome in a black embroidery work kurta that he paired with black trousers. His smile did all the talking.

Lakshya Lalwani who made his Bollywood debut with Kill made a power-packed presence at the Diwali party. Wearing a simple black kurta with white trousers, Lakshya opted for a casual look.
