Kabir Khan's Setara explores the story of a 15-year-old Afghan girl who flees from the Taliban and lands in Melbourne. "Amid family tensions and past trauma, she finds her sense of belonging through cricket and resilience," read the synopsis. The film is headlined by the girl who lived the experience.

Emma's official description reads, "Directed by Rima Das, Emma tells the story of a talented deaf dancer, who grapples with self-doubt and discrimination until a chance meeting with another deaf dancer inspires her to embrace her uniqueness and find her inner strength."
