

Cinema

'My Melbourne' trailer dropped: Four real-life stories of hope, identity and resilience

Anthology film by Kabir Khan, Imtiaz Ali, Rima Das and Onir set for India release on March 14

Advertisement

LIFESTYLE FASHION FOOD ENTERTAINMENT EVENTS

A screengrab from the trailer of 'My Melbourne'

Atreyee Poddar

Published on: 24 Feb 2025, 7:54 pm

Updated on: 24 Feb 2025, 7:54 pm · 2 min read

The much-anticipated trailer for My Melbourne is finally here, offering a compelling glimpse into four diverse, real-life-inspired stories set against the vibrant backdrop of Melbourne.

Directed by renowned Indian filmmakers Kabir Khan, Imtiaz Ali, Rima Das and Onir, the anthology explores themes of identity, resilience and human connection. The film is set for a theatrical release in India on March 14, 2025.

Onir's Nandini follows Indraneel, a queer Indian man who reunites with his estranged father in Melbourne for a exploring themes of acceptance, grief and reconciliation.

Jules, which is directed by Arif Ali and creatively guided by Imtiaz Ali, tells the story of Sakshi, a newlywed woman who forms an unexpected friendship with Jules, a homeless woman. Their bond highlights the power of empathy and human connection.

11 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11

Related Stories

Urvashi Rautela's scenes in 'Daaku Maharaja'; Did the Ali Khan controversy play a role?

Ujjainee Roy · 20 Feb 2025

Kabir Khan, Imtiaz Ali, Rima Das and Onir's anthology 'My Melbourne' to have a theatrical release on March 14

Dharitri Ganguly · 10 Feb 2025

Saif Ali Khan stabbing incident: Kartik Aaryan, Shahid Kapoor and more celebrities voice their concern

Team Indulge · 17 Jan 2025

Actor and anchor Sahiba Babi

Advertisement

Directed by Rima Das, Emma follows a talented deaf dancer struggling with self-doubt and discrimination. A chance encounter with another deaf performer inspires her to embrace her identity and strength.

Setara, a Kabir Khan directorial, brings to life the real story of a 15-year-old Afghan girl rebuilding her life in Melbourne after fleeing the Taliban. Finding solace in cricket, she navigates family tensions and past trauma while forging a new future.

Glimpses from My Melbourne and the directors

Each story in My Melbourne delves into the lives of individuals navigating personal and societal challenges while embracing inclusivity and self-discovery. With its powerful storytelling and diverse narratives, My Melbourne is ready to be a very emotional and thought-provoking cinematic experience.

FACEBOOK

Advertisement

▲

Paresh Rawal confirms Kartik Aaryan was dropped from 'Hera Pheri 3'

Imtiaz Ali

Kabir Khan

Rima Das

Onir

Trailer Drop

My Melbourne

Show Comments

INDULGEE

Follow Us

Contact Us | About Us | Privacy Policy | Terms of Use |
The New Indian Express | The Morning Standard | Dinamani |
Samakalika Malayalam | Kannada Prabha | Cinema Express |
Edexlive | Eventxpress

© indulgexpress 2025 Powered by Quintype